

So much happening at Young Israel this Sukkot...

...we just couldn't fit it all on the back of that teeny little announcement sheet!

Check out this lineup of YIH Youth Activities!

Sukkot activities kick into high gear with The Great Sukkah Hop, and continue clear beyond Simchat Torah!

Here's an overview of what to expect over the next 10 days:

September 23-October 2: Regular Jr. Congregation schedule every morning of Shabbat & Yom Tov (except Simchat Torah)

Shabbat, Sep 25: The Great Sukkah Hop for grades K thru 5. See the schedule on this page. No SHAGs today.

Sunday, September 26: Football In The Sukkah for grades 9-12. Not going to the game? Come for BBQ and cheer on the Dolphins against the Evil Ones. Dinner served at 7:30 PM; game starts at 8:20 PM. $10 per person to cover the food.

Monday, September 27: Simchat Beit HaShoeva & Pizza Party, 5:30 PM, for all kids and families, featuring the Xtreme Team (as seen performing their high-flying basketball dunking and acrobatics show at Miami Heat games), prizes, and more! $10 per person; half price for paid youth members. (You can pay your youth membership dues at the door and still get in for $5.) Don't miss it!

Tuesday, September 28: FREE trip for grades 6-8: "Zorbing" at Fun Fun USA in Coral Square Mall. This facility has been offered to our kids at no charge by our shul's newest member, Avraham Pinhasi. Pay only $7 per person to cover round trip bus transportation from Young Israel. Depart 11:00 AM; return 3:00 PM. See back for more into.

Thursday, September 30: Pre-Simchat Torah Mini Hakafot, 4:30 PM in the social hall, for all children thru 2nd grade. Special gifts for all who attend!

Friday, October 1: Simchat Torah

BBQ at the Frier home for grades 9-12 (and all Group Leaders), immediately after shul.

Shabbat, October 2: The Candy & Prize Store is open for business at Shabbat Afternoon Groups. Bring your Frequent Frier Miles and see what you can get for them!!!

Saturday Night, October 2: "You Don't Mess With the Bnei Akiva" party for grades 9-12 at the Bayit, 9:30 PM.

The Great Sukkah Hop is Back!

The Hop returns to its Progressive Lunch format

Once again, our Sukkah Hoppers will enjoy a progressive lunch as they move from Sukkah to Sukkah on the Great Sukkah Hop. It all starts following the 9:00 Minyan on Shabbat Chol HaMoed Sukkot, September 25, 2010.

All groups start in the shul Sukkah for Kiddush, Hamotzi, and a Sukkot message from Rabbi Davis to get them hopping. Below is the schedule the groups will follow once they're done at the shul:

Frequently Asked Questions:

What is Zorbing?

Zorbing is what you do when you get inside a Zorb, silly!

Okay, fine. What's a Zorb?

A Zorb is a giant plastic ball that enables you to walk, run, crawl,
 and (most importantly) crash
 into your friends on the surface of the water.

Making pita & humus

9-12 grades from all South
 Florida are invited to a party in the Bnei Akiva Bayit.
